

Shane Bauer, Sarah Shourd and Josh Fattal have been detained in Iran since July 31, 2009, when news reports say they accidentally crossed an unmarked border during a hiking trip in the mountains of Iraqi Kurdistan. They were in a peaceful region of Iraq that is increasingly popular with Western tourists.

The hikers are being held in the capital, Tehran. Two hundred and fifty days after they were detained, no charge against them has been presented in a court of law and they have only been able to contact their families once.

This is an opportunity to gather to provide prayers, thoughts, and energy to Shane, Sarah, and Josh, their families and friends, and each other.
